

Encounters in Bioethics 2019-2020

Caring for People with Chronic Pain: Challenging ethical issues

- Addressing distress from the lack of definite diagnosis and/or treatment plan
- Balancing hope and realism when discussing expectations
- Responding to injustices experienced by the pain sufferer

Presenter:

Hadi Shojaei, MD

Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Specialist, St. Joseph's Care Group; Assistant Professor, NOSM

Panel Members:

Jennifer Lake, RN, Chronic Pain Management Program, St. Joseph's Care Group
Paul Francis, MSW, RSW, Director of Indigenous Relations, St. Joseph's Care Group
Deborah Scharf, PhD, CPsych, Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology,
Lakehead University

Wednesday, October 23, 2019, 7:00-9:00 p.m.

St. Joseph's Heritage, 63 Carrie Street, Thunder Bay, ON in the Georgian Room

Everyone welcome. Free Admission. Free parking.

Thursday, October 24, 2019, 12:00-1:00 p.m.

Thunder Bay Regional Health Sciences Centre, Boardroom, 3rd Floor Administration

Abbreviated session; not all panelists participate. Everyone welcome.

Live webcast (use Internet Explorer or Safari): <http://webcast.otn.ca/mywebcast?id=142863287>

Ontario Telemedicine Videoconference: OTN Coordinators: register your site at:

<https://schedule.otn.ca/tsm/portal/nonclinical/details.do?request.requestId=142863287> or telemedicine@tbh.net

Certificate of Continuing Professional Education available

Sponsored by:

Gerontological Nursing
Association Ontario
North West Chapter